REITERATES GREELEY'S ADVICE

Mayor Harrison Tells Young Men to Go West.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 15.—Mayor Harrison returned today from a hunting trip in the Southwest with the same advice that Horace Greeley gave the young men of the country long ago.

The Mayor's advice applies especially to Oklahoma and the Indian Territory.

"Were I under 30 years of age," he said, I would certainly go to that section of the country. Nearly every man out there is young and vigorous and prosperous. Every one seemed to be making money and the future is full of promise.

The cotton fields are like snow fields at present. The stock farms are magnificent.
In fact, the country is invigorating, inspiring and most alluring. I advise young men to strike out for that portion of the West."

FREE KINDERGARTEN
SCHOOL IS OPENED.

Miss Niedringhaus Will Finance Institution for Children of Poor Parents.

LIMITS MEMBERSHIP TO FIFTY.

Rooms Are Equipped With Modern Conveniences and Pupils Will Be Instructed by Experienced Teachers.

A free under-age kindergarten was organized yesterday morning at the Niedringhaus Memorial Hall, seventh street and Cass avenue. It will be supported by Miss Eliza Niedringhaus of No. 422 Linden boulevard.

The number of pupils will be limited to fifty. Forty-two children were present yesterday morning and on the application of their parents were enrolled. The children of the persons composing the Niedringhaus Memorial School, a kindergarten and of those living in the vicinity of seventh street and Cass avenue will be enrolled until the limited number is made up.

Miss Niedringhaus will have supervision of the kindergarten, but will do no teaching.
The teacher in charge will be Miss Ida Alworth, who has had work under Miss Mary C. Mitchell, supervisor of the Indian Crow Kindergarten Association.

The new school will have all the latest conveniences. The front gallery of the hall has been partitioned from the side galleries and the children will be instructed.
An effort will be made to make the kindergarten equal to any of those supported from the school fund.

The intention of the promoters is to receive the mothers of children under 6 years of age for a part of the day. Children under 4 and a year of age only will be taken in the sessions of the kindergarten will be from 9 to 12 o'clock each day, except Saturday and Sunday.

While the Niedringhaus school will cooperate with the Indian Crow under-age kindergarten, it has no connection with them.
Miss Alworth said yesterday afternoon that the plan of work would not be exactly the same as that used in the St. Louis school, but that it would be more on the Eastern order.

After the kindergarten gets in running order it is proposed to have mothers' meetings every two weeks. These meetings will be held at the Niedringhaus school and will be for the mothers of children under 6 years of age. The school is to be distinct from the girls' and boys' classes which have been conducted by the superintendent and his assistants for several months.

The superintendent is the Reverend H. C.
Lewy.

DRIVER FORGETS HIS INJURY TO OVERTAKE RUNAWAY TEAM

Picks Himself Up From Wreck of Wagon That Was Hit by a Street Car and Prevents Panic.

Walter L. Hallett, 30 years old, of No.
633 Euclid avenue, and Joe Jordan, 15 years old, of Clifton Heights, while driving in the car tracks near Eleventh and Pine streets were struck by a street car No. 26 and thrown to the street yesterday afternoon.

Jordan escaped with slight scratches and bruises about the left leg, while Hallett received several painful cuts about the face and body.

The wagon in which the men were riding was smashed and the mules started to run, and only for the presence of mind of Hallett, the driver, many persons might have been hurt, for a crowd looked into the street.

Before the thoroughly frightened mules had gone more than half a block Hallett, who had recovered from the shock of the accident, gave chase and subdued the frightened animals as they were about to crash through a crowd of shoppers.

At the time of the accident Hallett had succeeded in turning the mules and the front end of the wagon out of the track.
With the side of the wagon fully exposed the driver was able to prevent the mules from running and the broken bits of drugs and the broken bits of the wagon were dashed against the mules, cutting and frightening them.

The car was a street car No. 26, driven by James Nolan and Motorman Harry Kelly.

INDIANS OF KLONDIKE
GO ON THE WARPATH

Two Chiefs and Nearly 200 Warriors Turn Themselves Into a Murderous Frenzy.

STORE RAIDED; OWNER KILLED.

Major Outburst Prepares to Start on a Punitive Expedition With Fifty Men—Peaceful Natives Panic Stricken.

Dawson, Dec. 15.—Keen excitement and apprehension prevail at White Horse and various points along the line of the new government trail over the report that a band of Hinko Indians has taken the warpath in the region between the Little Salmon and Pottery rivers.

A store is reported to have been looted and burned, the storekeeper killed and seven men fatally injured.

The Little Salmon Indians are said to be panic-stricken over the outbreak of the hostile tribe, and are sending their squaws and children to the police detachment at Tannah, near the Yukon Crossing, for protection.

Major Outburst has been fully apprised of the report of the war. He has issued an order mobilizing the men at his command and in case a confirmation of the news of the outbreak is received he will leave here for Skidoo immediately with fifty men.

It is stated that 150 to 200 men are in the hostile tribe, headed by two well-known chiefs. At last accounts they were holding a war dance and were working themselves into a murderous frenzy.

Trouble with the Indians in the region between the Little Salmon and the Pottery rivers has been existing for a long time. A native for the outbreak is furnished by the hanging of three of their number in 1899 for the murder of a prospector on the Little Salmon. The execution took place in Dawson at the local barracks.

While Major Outburst is rather reticent as regards the details of the trouble it is known that first news of the reported uprising and murder reached here yesterday morning from White Horse. A wire was received from Captain Horner, stating that word had been received there of the outbreak.

FUNERAL OF MATHIAS BACKER TAKES PLACE THIS MORNING.

Miller Who Came to St. Louis From Germany by Water Sixty Years Ago Is Dead.

The funeral of Mathias Backer, who died at his home, No. 142 South Tenth street, Saturday, will take place from St. Vincent's Church at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Backer came to this country from Ostercappeln, Hanover, Germany, sixty years ago without a penny, and it was due to his industry, honest business methods and the opportunities which the growing city offered that he was able to amass a fortune estimated at half a million dollars.

When he came to this city as a young man he journeyed up the Hudson River, through the Erie Canal, across the lakes to Cleveland, O., thence to the Ohio River, down which he floated to meet the Mississippi and at last upstream to the lower country near St. Louis. The western limit of the city at that time was what is now Seventh street.

In a quiet and business way Mr. Backer was a quiet and unassuming man. He was a member of St. Vincent's church and of a number of religious societies. He was a pious and upright man.

His wife, who was Mrs. Maria Gertrude Gildehaus when he married her in 1840, survives him. Their children, George H.
Backer, Mrs. Theresa Kulage and Mrs.
Mary E. Scheide, were planning to celebrate their parents' diamond wedding in 1904.

CITY COLLECTOR IS READY FOR RUSH OF TAXPAYERS.

Instructions to Property Owners How to Expedite Work by Bringing Property Descriptions.

Collector Hammer is preparing to meet the expected rush of taxpayers who desire to avoid paying penalties on current revenue bills which become delinquent January 1, 1903.

As the month becomes more advanced the number of taxpayers steadily increases, and only two weeks remain for the payment of these bills without penalty. The collector's force is anticipating loads of work.

For the benefit of those who are not acquainted with the details of tax-paying, Mr.
Hammer has prepared the following rules:

Bring postal notices with you.

Give a definite description of your property, stating its location, its size, its value, its use, etc., and its owner's name.

Be prompt in the payment of your bills.

Be sure that the larger you pay in paying your taxes the greater the relief you will have to encounter at the collector's office.

Northcott Is in Charge.

First Day as Governor of Illinois Is Quite Laborious.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Springfield, Ill., Dec. 15.—Acting Governor Northcott's first day in the executive office was devoted to work of the most laborious sort in order to get the office running. When the Acting Governor reached the Capitol this morning he found awaiting his attention a mass of correspondence, together with twenty-five or thirty commissions for notaries public and public administrators.

Before evening he had attached his signature to all the commissions and had made a very favorable impression on the great accumulation of unanswered letters. It will take several days, however, to dispose of all matters that have developed since Governor Yates became ill, nearly two months ago.

Little besides the office routine has developed since Governor Yates became ill. As expected, the return of Governor Yates, which he expects will be December 24, as the Governor is anxious to spend Christmas in the country. Mr. Northcott, from Miami Fla., indicates that his improvement is gratifyingly rapid.

Mr. Northcott accompanied his husband, and the two will occupy the Executive Mansion during the Governor's absence. Mr.
Northcott is suffering from a severe cold, and probably will not entertain while here.
